

DEFERRED ENTRY TO PRIMARY SCHOOL

INFORMATION FOR PARENTS/
CARERS AND HOW TO APPLY

LEARN HERE

When is my child eligible to start primary school?

Children who will be 5 years of age between the first day of March and the end of February the following year will be eligible to start school at the start of the school term in August.

This means that some children, those with birthdays after the start of the school term in August, will not have reached 5 years of age when they start school.

Most parents/carers choose to send their child to school as soon as they are eligible. However, there may be some exceptional circumstances in which deferred entry to primary school should be considered and the following information will be helpful to parents/carers who are considering or have already decided that they wish to defer their child's entry to school.

Am I entitled to defer my child's entry to Primary 1 (P1) and will a further year of funded nursery provision be provided?

In accordance with legislation parents/carers of children whose 5th birthday falls between the day after the school commences in August and the last day of February the following year are deemed not to have reached 'school commencement age' and parents/carers have a choice about whether they enrol and send their child to school or defer entry until the following school year.

- Parents/carers with children whose 5th birthday is between March and Mid-August (including the first day of the school term) are not automatically entitled to defer their child's entry to primary school as their child has already reached the age of 5 years on the school commencement date in August. A further year of nursery provision would be at the discretion of the local authority.
- Parents/carers with children whose 5th birthday is between Mid-August (day after school commences) and December are entitled to defer their child's entry to P1 but it is at the discretion of the local authority if a further year of nursery provision is granted. Parents/carers do not need to seek permission from the local authority to defer their child if they are making alternative arrangements.
- Parents/carers with children whose 5th birthday is in either January or February are automatically entitled to defer entry to P1. A further year of funded nursery provision will be provided in a funded provider setting operating in the public, private or voluntary sector.

What factors should I and consider that will inform me and help me make my decision regarding deferred entry for my child?

- The national curriculum guidance, 'A Curriculum for Excellence' ensures continuity and progression in learning from nursery into P1, building on prior learning and meeting the needs of the individual child.
- A child's learning is traditionally assumed to be sequential with particular skills being required before later learning can occur. Current research indicates that child development and learning is complex and there is a wide variation in a child's development at the early stages.
- Staged Intervention planning and support, and Getting It Right For Every Child, are underpinned by an approach to assessment. This is carried out by those working directly with the child and involving parents/carers as active partners.

It is important to note that children who have deferred their entry to Primary 1 will reach the school leaving age of 16 years before completing their education, this could result in a young person reaching statutory school leaving age and choosing the option to leave school before being presented for any national qualifications.

How is my application for a deferred year and a further year of funded nursery provision assessed if my child's birthday is between March and December?

The Education and Families Service is child centred and any decisions are based on the underlying principles of Getting It Right for All Children, the national approach to support children and families.

It is acknowledged that parents/carers know their child best and staff working in early learning and childcare settings are experienced in being able to offer professional advice and observations about a child's 'readiness for school'.

To support parents/carers in making the best decision for their child in relation to when they are ready to start Primary 1 the Education and Families Service will assess and consider all discretionary applications for deferred entry.

Whilst the decision to defer and fund a further year at nursery is taken by a discretionary deferred entry panel, the views of parents/carers, early learning practitioners and if possible, the child are central to the decision-making process.

The discretionary deferred entry panel will consider each child's assessment and planning information gathered over time by those who work directly with the child and always in close partnership with parents/carers. This 'evidence' gathered will include all, or some of the following:

- Views of parents/carers and early learning practitioners working with the child
- GIRFME/Co-ordinated Support Plans
- Health and Wellbeing Assessments
- Current nursery reports
- Reports from other agencies e.g. Speech and Language Therapy
- Minutes of review/ multi-agency meetings

How is my application for a deferred year and a further year of funded nursery provision assessed if my child's birthday is between January and February?

There is an automatic entitlement to deferred entry, and for the local authority to fund a further year of nursery provision no assessment is required.

Who is on the discretionary deferred entry panel that will take the decision on my application?

The discretionary deferred entry panel consists of experienced officers with acknowledged expertise in early learning and childcare education, additional support needs and educational psychology. The panel is normally chaired by an Education Manager.

I am concerned about my child being ready to start P1 as they have additional support needs. What reassurances can you give me that their needs will be met?

For children with significant additional support needs, deferred entry may be considered if it is agreed by the child's parents/carers, and early learning practitioners and assessed by the professionals involved, that this would be in their best interests.

It should be noted however that in many circumstances a further year in nursery may not be considered beneficial to meet the child's additional support needs.

Continued planning and assessment throughout the child's time at nursery, together with enhanced transition, should ensure that the correct support is in place and that the child is fully engaged, included and involved in all aspects of school life.

How do I apply to defer my child's entry to P1 and request a further year of funded nursery provision?

Regardless of when your child's birthday is you should enrol them at their catchment school during the assigned week in January.

The form DE1, attached to this information leaflet, should be completed. Parents/carers are required to confirm that they have followed the correct process and enrolled their child for primary school. The head teacher at the catchment school will also be required to confirm that your child has been enrolled for school.

For January and February birthdays a DE1 form will be submitted by the head teacher to the ELC Team by the end of January.

The head teacher/ head of the Family Learning Centre/manager of Funded Provider service will submit the necessary supporting documentation for children with March – December birthdays to the ELC Team by the end of January each year

What happens next?

The discretionary deferred entry panel will meet normally in March of each year. Each application will be considered on an individual basis and parents/carers, head teachers and heads/managers of nurseries, or other partner providers, will be advised of the outcome no later than the end of April.

Parents/carers and the child's ELC provider will be informed in writing that this request has been processed. Any questions regarding this should be made to the ELC provider in the first instance.

Can I appeal the decision if the discretionary deferred entry panel do not agree to grant my deferred entry application and fund a further year at nursery for my child?

Whilst there is no formal right to appeal, the discretionary deferred entry panel will consider any further information that parents/carers feel is relevant to their circumstance after the panel has met and the initial decision has been shared with parents/carers, head teachers and heads/managers of nurseries, or other partner providers.

Why do I have to enrol my child at primary school if I want to defer their entry?

You should enrol your child at your catchment primary school. This safeguards your child's place in Primary 1 in the event:

- your application for consideration of discretionary deferred entry is unsuccessful and you decide to send your child to school
- you change your mind prior to your child starting school in August if your child is a January or February birthday

If the deferred entry is granted, the child's enrolment at their catchment school will be withdrawn automatically.

What are my options if a further year at nursery has not been granted, can I still defer my child's entry to P1?

In the first instance we would encourage you to speak to your child's current ELC provider about your options.

If your child's 5th birthday is between March and Mid-August (first day of the school term) then they are of statutory school age on the first day of term and the responsibility for providing them with a school education is with their parent/carer, there is no entitlement in legislation to defer their entry to school. You may decide to send your child to school, or you may consider home schooling as an alternative option. Staff from the Inclusion Section can provide you with further information on home schooling if this is of interest to you.

If your child has not reached the age of 5 on the school commencement date in August, then you can exercise your right to defer your child starting P1 till the following school year. If the decision is not to fund a further year at nursery then you are free to make your own arrangements regarding nursery provision.

What measures are in place to ensure a successful transition to school should I ultimately decide to send my child to school?

A number of factors now support the successful transition of the vast majority of children to primary one at the expected stage including:

- Improved transition arrangements with a pathway of shared information about the child from the early year's provider to the receiving school.
- A more integrated approach between nursery and early primary to deliver a high quality Curriculum for Excellence
- Primary schools build upon Experiences and Outcomes provided through the Early Level of Curriculum for Excellence to deliver a flexible approach to learning

These factors may provide reassurance to parents/carers who are anxious about their child's move from an ELC setting to primary.
