“universal service provider” has the same meaning as in the Postal Services Act 2000, and

“vehicle” unless the context otherwise requires, means a vehicle of any description and includes a machine or implement of any kind drawn or propelled along roads whether or not by mechanical power;

3. Save as provided in Article 4, no person shall, except upon the direction or with the permission of a police constable in uniform, cause or permit any vehicle to stop at any time in any of the lengths of road specified in Schedule I.
4. Nothing in Article 3 shall apply to:-

any vehicle where the driver; (i) is required by law to stop, (ii) is obliged to stop in order to avoid an accident, (iii) is prevented from proceeding by circumstances out with the driver's control and it is not reasonably practicable for the vehicle to be driven or moved to a place not on the length of road; (b) any vehicle while being used for fire and rescue, ambulance or police purposes, if the observance of any restriction in these articles would likely to hinder the use of the vehicle for such purposes; (c) any vehicle, not being a passenger vehicle, while being used in the service of the Council in pursuance of statutory powers or duties, if it cannot conveniently be used for such purposes in any other length of road; (d) any vehicle, if it cannot conveniently be used for such purposes in any other length of road, while being used in connection with any building operation, demolition or excavation, the removal of any obstruction to traffic, the maintenance, improvement or reconstruction of the road, or the laying erection, alteration, removal or repair in or near the road of any sewer or main, pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity, or any apparatus comprised in any electronic communications network.
5. Save as provided in Articles 7, 8 & 9 of this Order no person shall, except upon the direction or with the permission of a police constable, or parking attendant, in uniform, cause or permit any vehicle to wait at any time in any of the lengths of road specified in Schedules II & IV.
6. Save as provided in Articles 7, 8 & 9 of this Order no person shall, except upon the direction or with the permission of a police constable, or parking attendant, in uniform, cause or permit any vehicle to wait in any of the lengths of road, and during such times and days, as specified in Schedules III.
7. Nothing in Articles 5 & 6 of this Order shall apply to: (a) any vehicle while being used for fire and rescue, ambulance or police purposes, if the observance of any restriction in these articles would likely to hinder the use of the vehicle for such purposes; (b) any vehicle, not being a passenger vehicle, while being used in the service of the Council in pursuance of statutory powers or duties, if it cannot conveniently be used for such purposes in any other length of road; (c) any public service vehicle while waiting at any authorised stopping place; (d) any vehicle, if it cannot conveniently be used for such purposes in any other length of road, while being used in connection with any building operation, demolition or excavation, the removal of any obstruction to traffic, the maintenance, improvement or reconstruction of the road, or the laying erection, alteration, removal or repair in or near the road of any sewer or main, pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity, or any apparatus comprised in any electronic communications network; (e) any liveried vehicle in the service of, or employed by, a universal service provider and in actual use in a length of road while postal packets: (i) addressed to premises adjacent to the length of road are being unloaded from the vehicle or, having being unloaded, are being delivered to those premises, or (ii) are being collected from postal boxes or premises adjacent to the length of road for loading on to the vehicle or are being so loaded, and (f) any security vehicle in actual use in a length of road while currency or other valuables: (i) are being unloaded from the vehicle for delivery to premises adjacent to the length of road or, having been unloaded, are being so delivered or (ii) are being collected from premises adjacent to the length of road for loading on to the vehicle or, having been collected, are being so loaded.
8. Nothing in Articles 5 & 6 of this Order shall prevent any person from causing or permitting a vehicle to wait in any of lengths of road specified in Schedules II & IV for as long as may be necessary: (a) to enable a person to board or alight a vehicle; (b) if the vehicle is in actual use in connection with the removal of furniture to or from any residential or commercial premises adjacent to the road in question and (c) if the vehicle is in actual use in connection with a funeral undertaking.

9. Nothing in Article 5 & 6 of this Order shall apply to any vehicle waiting in any lengths of road specified in Schedule III & IV which is not causing an obstruction and on which is displayed, in the relevant position, a valid disabled person's badge.
10. If a vehicle is left on any of the roads specified in Schedules I, II, III & IV without complying with the requirements of this Order, a contravention shall have occurred, and a penalty charge shall be payable. A Penalty Charge Notice showing the information required by the appropriate legislation may then be issued by a parking attendant in accordance with the requirements of the legislation or any subsequent applicable legislation or the vehicle may be removed from the location. The particulars given in the Penalty Charge Notice attached to a vehicle shall be treated as evidence in any proceedings relating to failure to pay such penalty charge. Where a Penalty Charge Notice has been attached to a vehicle no person, not being the driver of the vehicle, a parking attendant in uniform, or some other person duly authorised by the Council, shall remove the notice from the vehicle unless authorised to do so by the owner of the vehicle.

Given under the Seal of the North Lanarkshire Council and subscribed for them and on their behalf by Archie Aitken, Head of Democratic and Legal Services, at Motherwell on ***, day of ***, Two thousand and ***.
